

RED FLAGS

in Kinesiology
Staying within the boundaries of safe clinical practice

Dr. Bruce Dewe MD

Co-Founder PKP International
Former Hospital Superintendent
Chartered Natural Medicine Practitioner
Life Member Australian Institute of Kinesiologists
One of the Founding-Fathers of Kinesiology

Dr. Dewe will be covering:

SEVEN REASONS WHY DIAGNOSIS IS IMPORTANT

- Why you need some understanding of the diagnostic process.

WHEN MUSCLE WEAKNESS IS NOT AN UNLOCKING MUSCLE

- There is a difference, and you should know the common six reasons.
- When should you refer to a neurologist?

RECOGNISING A MENTAL DISORDER

- When a mental problem needs combined care.
- Psychological disorders and the DSM IV.
- We do not have all the skills.

STANDARD SYSTEMATIC QUESTIONS

- Sort clients' problems quickly, efficiently.
- Know when a client's problem is within the scope of kinesiology.
- Standard questions also protect the client.

HOW TO USE FLOW-CHARTS

- Acute & chronic pains - chest & abdominal.
- Male and female health challenges.
- Sort headaches, vomiting, skin problems.

WHAT ONE GRADUATE SAID

"My father is a hospital cardiologist. When he saw my Class Notes for 'Red Flags in Kinesiology' he told me that at last he was able to say he was happy that I was studying kinesiology and was no longer worried"

Saturday & Sunday 1 - 2 May, 2010

Kinesiology College Building

23 Domain Road, Panmure, Auckland

Book Now

go to www.icpkp.com

WHAT SYDNEY 2010 GRADUATES ARE SAYING

"Doing the Red Flags workshop has given me more confidence in my ability to determine the boundaries for my kinesiology practice. The tool that Dr Bruce Dewe has created presents a wealth of information in a user-friendly format, and will take kinesiology practitioners to new heights of professionalism. Thank you, Natasha."

"The weekend was so inspiring and confirmed for me the importance of our role as Healthcare practitioners to set a professional example within the medical field. Armed with the important medical knowledge to take a full-proof case history for our clients, I believe this course has prepared me for real life emergency situations I will come across." Lori